

Even fewer

Succeed.

Few try.

It's one thing to strive and reach.
It's another to grasp and accomplish.
That's why we salute our latest team members to achieve their CPCU designations: Phillip R. Cole and Timothy Michael Smith.

These individuals are an integral part of the ERC team – a team that has the demonstrated perseverance and dedication it takes to lead in the insurance industry. It's the knowledge and expertise you've grown to expect from ERC. It's the leadership we deliver every day.

ERC

We bring good things to life.
